

NEWS

FROM FAMILY SERVICE OF CHESTER COUNTY

Family Service Selects New Executive Director Mark L. Butler, MS

We are pleased to announce the appointment of our new Executive Director, Mark Butler.

Mark is currently serving as Director of Community Services at Carson Valley Children's Aid in Flourtown, PA.

Mark received his undergraduate degree from James Madison University and his Master's degree from Chestnut Hill College.

He has over 25 years of increasingly responsible experience serving Carson Valley School and Carson Valley Children's Aid; initially serving as a Mental Health Worker, Psychotherapist and growing into continuous leadership roles including Program Coordinator, Assistant Director of Residential Services, overall supervision for services in the Allegheny West Neighborhood Center and for the last 7 years Director of Community Services.

With a Master's degree in Counseling Psychology and Human Services, Mark's entire career has been spent in human services delivery and administration.

We owe many thanks to our Transition Committee and Board of Directors for their hard work on behalf of the agency to complete the Executive Director search.

We are excited about introducing Mark to our friends, supporters and colleagues and eager for the bright future ahead for Family Service. Mark's first day will be February 25th.